16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 18, 2010

While on earth Jesus became the guest of Martha and Mary. Like Abraham, Martha bustled about to prepare the very best for a guest she honored and respected. Unlike Abraham, she became so anxious about the practical side that she began to lose sight of the really important part of welcoming a guest; that of giving him her loving and receptive attention.

Jesus does not need us to busy ourselves doing thousands of jobs we think he might find useful; he wants us to welcome him with a young child's enthusiasm, to be happy in his presence, enjoying his company and learning at his feet through a loving relationship.
